and International Affairs.

DD/A REGISTRY

FILE: Training-3

1. It is requested that you meet with the members of the Executive Seminar in National and International Affairs who will visit Headquarters on Wednesday, 6 May. The preferred time is 0930-1030 hours. Your remarks might cover the future of the intelligence profession, the relationship of CIA and Congress, and covert action.

2. The Executive Seminar is a 10-month program conducted annually since 1958 by the Foreign Service Institute of the Department of State. It is the most advanced training program of studies in international relations and foreign policy offered by the U.S. Government. The purpose of the 6 May visit is to provide the participants with a firsthand look at the Agency facility and with exposure to key senior officials as part of its week-long study unit on "National Security and Intelligence." The 24 senior officers participating include 14 career Foreign Service Officers and representatives of the following: International Communication Agency, Department of Agriculture, Department of Commerce, Federal Bureau of Investigation, and each of the uniformed services.  Directorate of Administration, represents the Central Intelligence Agency.

3. It is recommended that you address the group for approximately 15 minutes, with the remainder of the time for questions and answers.
